Counsel for the Appellant : MR.G.TUHIN KUMAR

Counsel for the Respondents : GP FOR REVENUE

The Court at the admission stage made the following :

ORAL JUDGMENT:

(per Hon'ble The Chief Justice)

.....

Learned counsel for the appellant states that possession of the appellant was sought to be disturbed without complying with the provisions of law and relied upon certain show-cause notices issued to third persons. Learned single Judge dismissed the writ petition with the observation that it will be for the petitioner to approach the concerned authorities with the explanation to the show-cause notice raising pleas therein which she is entitled to and in case authorities are satisfied with the explanation of the petitioner-appellant, obviously her possession will not be disturbed. With such an order, we do not find any ground to interfere. Accordingly this appeal is dismissed. No costs.
